

Assignment - Approach to Chest Pain

1. List five associated symptoms that should be screened for in a patient with chest pain.
-

2. Name the "Red Flags" that indicate a potentially catastrophic cause of chest pain.
-

3. What are the key components of a focused history when characterizing chest pain?
-

4. Identify four pulmonary differential diagnoses for chest pain.
-

5. Besides an ECG and CXR, what other laboratory investigations should be considered for a chest pain patient?